PROCESS

A person seeking self-exclusion from SKYCITY Darwin should contact the Licensee of SKYCITY Darwin to discuss their wish to be self-excluded. If after considering the information provided by the Licensee a person wishes to be self-excluded they should complete a Self-Exclusion Notice.

Self-exclusion is available for a minimum period of three (3) months, but may be for such longer period as requested. Self-exclusion takes effect three (3) days after the Self-Exclusion Notice is signed by the Licensee. The three day period is called the "cooling off" period and gives the applicant time to think about the decision and change their mind if they wish. A Self-Exclusion Notice lodged with the Licensee of SKYCITY Darwin cannot be reversed after the end of "cooling off" period. Self-Exclusion Notices must be completed in full and may be lodged in person or by post.

If you wish to be self-excluded from venues other than SKYCITY Darwin, a separate notice must be completed and provided to the Licensee of each venue.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE EXCLUDED PERSON

- A self-excluded person must not try to enter any part of SKYCITY Darwin during the period of self-exclusion.
- Should a self-excluded person enter any part of SKYCITY Darwin, that person must advise the Licensee's staff immediately when the person enters the self exclusion area.
- A self-excluded person accepts that if contrary to a Self-Exclusion Notice they gamble in an area they are excluded from they do so at their own risk and they will not make any claim for any losses they may suffer.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LICENSEE OF SKYCITY DARWIN

- The Licensee must provide information about the assistance available to a person wishing to self-exclude.
- The Licensee must remove a self-excluded person's name from player loyalty mailing lists or other lists promoting gaming activities during a period of self-exclusion.
- If a self-excluded person is discovered in, or attempting to enter, an area they are excluded from, the Licensee will take reasonable steps to prevent the self-excluded person's further participation in the gambling activities therein including prohibiting their entry or continued presence in the area.
