

Fact Sheet

- The man-made lagoon is approximately the size of eight and a half tennis courts
- The lagoon pool features a 30 metre white sand beach with a swim up bar
- 2 super villas will provide unprecedented luxury accommodation
- 2 deluxe gaming suits will be available for guests of the super villas
- A secluded island sits between the super villas, offering guests ultimate privacy
- The resort features 32 lagoon view rooms, some with a swim up / swim out experience
- Lagoon rooms will be priced from $350 in the Darwin high season
- An a-la-carte restaurant and bar will be central to the resort, offering cafe-style dining
- A luxury day spa will be available for SKYCITY Darwin guests and the general public
- The resort is on track for a July 2012 opening